

Capturing a Moment of Civility in our Community

Island County Art and Photography Contest in Celebration of Civility Month

Civility First and Sno-Isle Libraries invite participants of all ages to submit a photo or original art work with their interpretation of civility.

All entries must be submitted between Sept. 15 - 30 by 5 p.m. to the Coupeville Library with entry form attached. (see reverse)

- Three prize categories: under 16, 16 and over, and professional
- Participants under 18 must have a parent signature on the application form
- Submit one item only
- Photos or art works must be matted or mounted on art board; art no larger than 8 x 10"
- Digital files will not be accepted

Suggested themes for entries:

- Acknowledging others
- Being inclusive
- Showing respect
- Speaking out
- Acting with compassion

Art will be on public display beginning Oct. 1 at the Coupeville Library.

Awards ceremony: Oct. 27, 2 p.m.

COUPEVILLE LIBRARY

788 NW Alexander

360-678-4911

Pacific NorthWest
ART SCHOOL

CONTEST ENTRY

Name: _____

Address: _____

Email: _____

Phone: _____

Title of submission: _____

Parent signature: _____

(if under 18)

Catagory: Under 16 16 and older Professional

I give permission for my art to be shown in other venues in Island County and permission for my photo and/or the photo of my art to appear in the newspaper.

I am willing to donate my art to help fund civility activities in Island County.

I give permission for my art to be on public display for up to one year at Island County libraries, churches, city halls and galleries.

An information binder containing participation artist's business cards will travel with the show. Interested buyers will contact artists directly to arrange purchases.

Supported by Sno-Isle Libraries, Civility First, and Pacific Northwest Art School.